

Rep. Randy Nix
District 69

Biography

Representative Randy Nix of LaGrange, Georgia, brings a wealth of knowledge to the Georgia House of Representatives from his career in the financial services industry with experience in investments, insurance and banking. The 2020 legislative session will mark 13 years of service Nix has given to the people of the 69th district as their representative in the Georgia House of Representatives. The district encompasses parts of Carroll, Heard and Troup counties.

Rep. Nix serves as the chairman of the Ethics Committee and the Secretary of the Banks & Banking Committee, in addition to serving as a member of the Appropriations, Education, Economic Development & Tourism, Legislative & Congressional Reapportionment and Natural Resources and Environment committees. He also serves as an ex-officio member of the Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Nix graduated from Troy State University with a Bachelor of Science in Business. He is a graduate of the Southern Trust School and has also received advanced studies in financial planning.

Rep. Nix served seven years in the Alabama Air National Guard where his final assignment was as a weapons system officer flying the RF4-C Phantom aircraft. He was honorably discharged with the rank of captain.

Prior to his service in the Air National Guard, Nix served five years as a chaplain's assistant in the U.S. Army Reserve.

Today, Rep. Nix serves as a pastor at the Hillcrest United Methodist Church in LaGrange.

Rep. Nix is a member of the Rotary Club of LaGrange, past president of Boy and Girls Club of West Georgia and past president of the West Georgia Technical College Foundation Board.

Rep. Nix and his wife, Debra, have two children: Julie Nix Farr, a nursing student; and Jess R. Nix, an attorney in Birmingham, Alabama.